WORD

For we walk by faith, not by sight,
2 Corinthians 5:7

The things that we see around us in this world can be disheartening. Sickness and death and pain and suffering are all around us and it often seems as though things are getting worse and not better. It is for this reason that we must look past what we see. In 2 Corinthians 5:7 Paul tells us to “walk by faith, not by sight,” this is because Paul knows how discouraging this world can be. He also knows that God has promised us more than just the things of this world. In the Bible God promises us a better life that is free from heartache, pain, and suffering. He promises us a place that is free from sin and full of peace. We call that place heaven, but what is heaven? Simply put, heaven is being in the presence of God. When we are with God it will be heaven. To obtain access to the presence of God, our sins must be forgiven, and thankfully God provided a way for our sins to be atoned for in Jesus. It is through Jesus and Jesus alone that we can know that our sins are forgiven and the hope of a better future awaits us. Don't be discouraged today! The things you see may look bad and you may not be able to see how God is working in the world today, but we can rest assured by His Word that He is. I hope today you are not only walking by what you see, but instead are walking by faith in Jesus Christ and the promises of a beautiful eternity.
