SINGSPIRATION

It is a new year and we're back! On January 26 we will kicking off our first Singspiration of the new year. Get your instruments in tune, your vocal cords warmed up, and get ready for another fun year of music, fellowship, and food!

FREE BURMA RANGERS MOVIE

Tuesday February 25 @ 7PM

Over the last few years we have gotten the opportunity to know the Free Burma Rangers and the work they do to help people under attack in many areas of the world. A documentary movie has been made about their efforts and some in the church are going to see it. Many tickets have been purchased but there may still be some available should you be interested in going. If you are interested in attending and have not already let me (Shan) know please do and we will try to get you a ticket.

Amazing Dinner Rolls

Prep: 180 min.      Difficulty: Medium
Cook: 15-19 min.      Serves: 20 people

Ingredients

- ½ Cup of Warm Water (110-115 Degrees)
- 2 ¼ tsp Active Dry Yeast
- ⅓ Cup + ¼ tsp of Granulated Sugar
- 1 ⅓ Cups of Warmed Whole Milk
- ¾ Cup of Salted Butter (Divided) (At Room Temperature)
- 1 Large Egg (At Room Temperature)
- 1 ½ tsp Salt
- 4 ½ Cups of All-Purpose Flour

Preparation

1. Measure out warm water and stir in yeast and ¼ tsp of sugar. Whisk and let rest for 5-10 minutes until mixture is foamy.
2. Pour mixture into a mixing bowl adding in ⅓ cup of sugar, warm milk, 5 Tbsp of butter, egg and salt. Use electric mixer to blend mixture until combined. Add in 2 cups of flour and mix until well combined.
3. Using the dough hook attachment with the mixer, mix on low speed, slowly add remaining 2 ½ cups of flour and mix until dough is smooth and elastic (4-5 minutes). Dough should be slightly sticky to the touch.
4. Transfer dough to a greased, large mixing bowl and cover bowl with plastic wrap. Allow dough to rise in a warm place until it doubles in size (approximately 1 ½ hours).
5. After dough has risen, divide into two portions. Shape each into a ball and roll each out into a 13 inch circle on a floured surface. Spread each circle with 2 Tbsp of butter. Cut each circle into 4 equal quarters, then cut each quarter into three wedges (like a little pizza slice). Roll up all of the small wedges starting with the wide end of each.
6. Transfer rolls to a buttered 10x15 inch cookie sheet (the tip of each rolled wedge should be tucked on the bottom). You can fit 3 rows of 8 rolls in the pan. Cover rolls loosely with plastic wrap and let rise in a warm place until they double in size (about 1 hour).
7. Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Remove plastic from rolls and bake for 15-19 minutes until golden brown. Remove from oven and brush with remaining 3 Tbsp of butter.

WORD

One person gives freely, yet gains more;
another withholds what is right,
only to become poor.

Proverbs 11:24

If I was forced to choose only one book of the Bible to be able to read for the rest of my life it would be the book of Proverbs. It is chock full of wisdom ALL of which I need to hear. I find myself returning to the Proverbs often and each time realizing I have a long way to go in my pursuit of wisdom. As I read through each chapter of the book almost every theme I come across speaks to my need to grow in that area. It helps remind me how far I have left to grow in the Lord and in my daily walk with Him. Recently I have begun reading through Proverbs again and as I read through Proverbs 11 last night I was forced to think about wealth and generosity and inevitably reflect on my own life. As I look through this proverb again this morning I am reminded of the struggle that wealth brings. Do I freely give enough? Do I trust to much in what I have, whether a little or a lot? If I lost it all today would it cause me to trust the Lord more or would I begin to trust Him less? Perhaps you have struggled with these questions as well and know the burden that wealth often brings with it. We should see clearly through scripture that wealth can lead to ruin should we begin to trust in it too much. Of course knowing that and living that out are two different things. In verse 28 of Proverbs 11 it says, “Anyone trusting in riches will fall, but the righteous will flourish like foliage.” I don’t know about you, but I certainly want to flourish and not fall. That is why I like the proverbs so much. They remind me of truths like these. While we may be tempted to trust wealth, the Bible reminds us to trust the Lord. If we are trusting in anything other than Jesus and what He did for us on the cross, we are trusting in the wrong thing.

ENTERPRISE BAPTIST CHURCH
NOW HAS A WEBSITE!

We are proud to announce that we now have a website. The Enterprise Baptist Church website can be found by going to www.enterprisebaptist.church using any web browser on any computer, tablet, or smartphone. On the website you will find info on our service times, upcoming events, current bible studies and sermon series, as well as a sermon archive to listen to all of our past sermons online. In addition, you will also be able to check out any active ministries we have going on. We do hope this website will be a helpful resource to you and we encourage you to invite people to check out the website if they are interested in visiting us. This is only the first step in having an online present and we hope to have more resources and information listed on the site as it continues to grow over the next few months. Please do check the site out and give us any feedback you have, good or bad. Now what are you waiting for? Get online and head on over to enterprisebaptist.church!
